

Position

Business Development Executive

Job Description

CityPOST is seeking a Business Development Executive to join our expanding Sales Team in Alfragide. They will be focused on winning new business from within the 'Corporate Sector' and a promising and exciting career awaits the successful candidate.

Report into

Postal Sales Director

Location

Amadora

Key Responsibilities

- Identify and secure new business from within the 'Corporate Sector'
- Achieve/exceed sales targets in line with companies growth strategy
- Identify potential clients and the decision makers within the 'Corporate Sector'
- Research and build relationships with new clients.
- Cold call as appropriate with new clients and turn this into new business
- Main and develop a robust pipeline of opportunities
- Generate and deliver customer proposal and presentations

Reporting and Administration

- Update all customer and prospect activity on sales management system.
- Provide weekly sales reports to Postal Sales Director and ensure data is accurate.
- Update Forecasting sheets and Pipeline on a weekly basis (minimum)

Key skills

- Ability to communicate information clearly and concisely in English and Portuguese.
- Excellent presentation and communication skills
- Ability to close sales
- Proven track record in generating new sales from within the 'Corporate Sector'

Desirable:

- 3 years+ experience of successfully winning business in the 'Corporate Sector'
- 3 years+ experience within the Postal industry would be highly advantageous

Experience

- A minimum of 3 years' experience in business development
- A proven track record in achieving/exceeding sales targets.

Qualifications

- Essential - Educated to A Level standard.
- Desirable - Degree

Send us your English cv to: telmo.fialho@citypost.pt with reference: BDE_L02